Instructors are responsible for ordering their "desk copy" of the textbook and any available instructor materials. There should be no charge for this book/material. You should allow at least 7 business days to receive the material. Please have the text sent directly to your home address but let them know you are an instructor of Limestone College. If necessary, have the publisher contact Lori Downey for verification of employment. Do NOT try to order your copy through the publisher online – always call the number listed below.

Locate the class you will be teaching on the book list for the text you will need. Publishers usually want the ISBN. If you already have the textbook, please check the edition; it may have changed. IMPORTANT: Syllabi are sometimes out-of-date – the text listed on the booklist is the text that will be used, regardless of what the syllabus may say.
